

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION
3:11-cr-75

THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion, the government's Motion for Reconsideration, (Doc. No. 174), and the defendant's Response, (Doc. No. 175).

The government argues because a co-defendant has absconded from supervision prior to reporting to the Bureau of Prisons (BOP), that the defendant is also a risk to flee without serving her sentence. While the Court does not base its decision on that circumstance, other information shows that the need for the defendant to travel no longer exists. On May 23, 2012, the Court granted, (Doc. No. 173: Order), the defendant permission to travel to the Dominican Republic for up to 10 days to attend the funeral of her father, who passed away on May 21, 2012 (Doc. No. 170: Motion at Exhibit 1). The defendant had to obtain a duplicate passport and as of the date of this Order, has not left the country. According to the United States Probation Office (USPO), her father has since been interred. Therefore, the need to travel no longer exists.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the government's Motion for Reconsideration, (Doc. No. 174), is GRANTED and the permission to travel to the Dominican Republic is REVOKED. The defendant shall immediately surrender her passport to the USPO and abide by all previously ordered bond conditions, (Doc. No. 33: Order Setting Conditions of Release).

The Clerk is directed to certify copies of this order to the defendant, counsel for the defendant, to the United States Attorney, the United States Marshals Service, and the United States Probation Office.

Signed: June 1, 2012

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
Chief United States District Judge
